

3.2.1

To Regulate the research activities in our institutions continuous efforts are undertaken by the research and developmental cell to enhance the research activities . Research cell supports planning and grading the capacities of faculty and students. The interests of individuals is encouraged by their active participation in clinical/research surveys, seminars, workshops, conferences, panel discussions, symposium and training programs . Well equipped clinical set up with best armamentarium clinical lab & infrastructure set up is provided to necessitate in conducting research in right directions. Students co-ordinate with university assigned PG teachers, Ph.D guides to analyze their dissertations & scientific presentations. The research cell takes all the initiative to support every research activity. An ethical committee within R & D cell is fully functioning to facilitate of encourage in conducting research.