KHO KHO competition

As a part of the Cons Endo Day celebrations, a Kho Kho match was organized to promote team spirit, physical fitness, and camaraderie among students and faculty members. The event was held on 4-3-25, on the college ground, and witnessed enthusiastic participation and vibrant energy throughout.

The game began with a brief introduction to the sport and its significance, followed by a warm welcome by the organizing committee. Participants were divided into four teams, each comprising students and interns of the college. The match was played according to standard Kho Kho rules, ensuring fairness and competitiveness.

The spirit of sportsmanship was clearly visible as the teams showcased agility, coordination, and strategy. The event not only provided a break from academic routine but also strengthened interpersonal bonds among participants.

The winning team was felicitated with gifts, and all players were applauded for their participation and enthusiasm. The event concluded with a group photo and a vote of thanks by the organizers.

Overall, the Kho Kho game added a fun and energetic touch to the Cons Endo Day celebrations, reinforcing the importance of fitness and teamwork in both professional and personal life.
